

Dear Administrator,

The National Partnership for Juvenile Services is once again sponsoring the “Bob Rader Line Staff Worker of the Year” Award and the “Bob Rader Detention Services Worker of the Year” Award.

There are in fact distinct differences in the awards by definition. However, each is equally as important and allows each facility to select one individual from each category if they so choose.

- Juvenile Line Staff Worker - By definition, an individual responsible for the direct supervision of youth in an in-custody environment.
- Juvenile Detention Services Worker - By definition, an individual working in any form of detention services (i.e., secure, home detention) at any level of the organizational structure (i.e. supervisory, social services, food services, medical services, maintenance services).

You are invited to select one (1) individual for each category for these awards utilizing the following guidelines:

1. The Administrator of the facility and/or detention services system should be responsible for effecting an election/selection process to determine the recipient(s) of each award.
2. The recipient of the “Line Staff” Award must be a full-time employee providing direct supervision.
3. The recipient of the “Detention Services” Award must be a full-time employee within the umbrella of a detention services system.
4. The recipient(s) name and other identifying information must be submitted on the attached form.
5. Only one person can be nominated for each category.
6. The attached form(s) must be returned by September 30 of each year.

The recipient(s) of the Award will receive an 8 1/2 x 11 personalized certificate from the National Partnership for Juvenile Services. The Awards Recognition Ceremony will be held in conjunction with the National Symposium on Juvenile Services held annually in October. All recipients in attendance at the Award Reception at the Symposium will be recognized and presented with their certificate. It is important that you advise us when submitting your nomination(s) that the recipient will be in attendance. Certificates for those not in attendance at the Opening Ceremony will be mailed directly to the Administrator after the symposium. In addition, the administrator will receive an original press release to be submitted to the local newspaper at their discretion.

We encourage your participation in this very important process. Please don't hesitate to contact the NPJS Executive Office at 859-333-4209, should you have questions or need additional information.

Sincerely,

Terry Martinek, President
NPJS Council for Juvenile Detention
