

NPJS Members,

A valued supporter of NPJS has reached out to offer support during this time of uncertainty. Scott Gingold, President and CVO of Lehigh Valley Technical Company (LVTC) is offering assistance to your technology department/staff, who may be required to work remotely and may be overwhelmed in their efforts to fully execute a business continuity plan.

LVTC is offering agencies (whether you've been a prior customer or not) at-cost remote access, no contract or commitment, as well as professional consulting and advice at no charge. If any NPJS members are in need of these services, please feel free to contact Scott and his team directly at:
